This new partnership has been welcomed by both parties as a framework to support their mutual interest in the dissemination of knowledge, best practice and commentary on the challenges and issues facing the global cargo handling community.

In welcoming the new member, Richard Steele, ICHCA International's CEO stated, "Co-operation with key industry organisations is critical to the safe and efficient performance of today's increasingly complex supply chains. At ICHCA we remain committed to our efforts to improve safety, security and sustainability and with the help of Transport Events Limited, we can continue to spread our key messages, across Africa, Asia and Europe.

With nine events already planned for 2023, Transport Events Limited is a leading organizer of influential industry forums around the world. Managing Director, Rory Doyle commented on the union, "For a number of years we have admired the dedicated work of ICHCA in providing guidance on safety and other crucial issues in the cargo handling industry. We share many of the Associations values and through our network of meetings and conferences, we hope to give an even louder voice to the important ICHCA messages in the future."
